Downing Sept^r 15th 1778

Dear Sir

It will always give me real pleasure to contribute to your amusement: I lament that the evil days we have the misfortune to see, must stop our literary luxuries. Before the dreadful prospect opened,¹ I had put a drawing of old Sir John Wynn of Gwedir from a fine original at Wynnstay into an artist's hands.² when that is finished, proofs will be at y^r service. if I visit town next spring I shall not fail waiting on you, being with the truest esteem

Dear Sir

Y^{rs}

Tho. Pennant

excuse the liberty I take in begging that the inclosed may be returned directed to the Rev^d M^r John Jones Fellow of Jesus College
oxford.
