Dear Sir

By some misfortune, my ~~illegible~~ Baggage does not reach me till too morrow. the sheets of the welsh tour are in it. but you may depend on having them done to y^r [your] mind & sent by my Son the week following the next. They shall be left for you at Faulders. The ~~let in~~ copies shall be properly attended to. I can give you a ~~great copy~~ ^Sir J. Wynne but there are none on great paper So you must let it in.

There are to be sold at White's three very fine drawings of Moses Griffiths & one of P. Sandby's. they are ~~illegible~~ the property ~~of~~ to poor mores, so if you hear any body wish to have some of his works, I beg to recommend. & also puff off his X plates of suppl. [supplement] to Snowdon.

My best Complim^{ts} [Compliments] attend Miss Bull:¹ notr let M^r Storer be forgotten.

adieu

Y^{rs} [Yours] most truly

Th. [Thomas] Pennant
Downing June 1st. 1781.

Excuse the inclosed.² If you want a rev^d [reverend] M^r Lloyd you must buy him of M^r Mazel No 62 Portland street

Editorial Notes

² No enclosure has been preserved.
