Downing June 8th 1781

Dear Sir

I have just received your favor; let me beg you would write to y^r [your] servant to call at M^{rs} Pennant's in upper Grosvenour street for y^r [your] parcel where it will be left next week. There is now an account open between M. Griffith & you: he will fix his price as soon as ~~y^e~~ he has done what he is now about for you. What does the the Bookbinder¹ charge apiece for letting in our Snowdons.²

I & Moses beg Miss Bull's³ to favor us with their receipt for pasting prints on paper. we bungle dreadfully. my best Compliments attend them

Adieu

Y^{rs} [Yours] most truly

T [Thomas] Pennant
