Dear Sir

Many thanks for the present I am so undeserving of. Be so good as to order it to be sent instantly to M^r^ Whites Bookseller Fleetstreet. Your copy of the Journey to London shall be ready by Christmas perhaps before, If I can accomplish my own sooner. I thank you for the hint to my Son, but I really think that paternal affection does not blind me when I say that he may be trusted any where. Pray do you know of any friend who has acquaintance at Rheims or Dijon he means to pass a few days at each place: & a recommendation might be of use. You who know every body may be kind enough to procure some. I have this moment wrote to the Dean of Glo^uster for to procure a copy of instruction for travellers which I have heard he has written. & if true to beg one. none more capable of giving solid advice. Pray to whom do you refer in the counsil respecting expence.?

My best complim^ts^ attend Miss Bulls[2]. I hope all your fears respecting the health of one of the Ladies is over. Excuse me for troubling you with presenting M^rs^ Pennant's & my Complim^ts^ to Lady Mary Duncan: & let her know that we expect that in another Tour she will not forget her Welsh relations.

I am Dear Sir
most truely y^rs^

Tho. Pennant.
