Dear Sir

I hope to pick up more anecdotes about Enmore. but let me request you to be expeditious in befriending me with a copy of the plate &c. As some excuse to my friends for the trouble I give, let them consider me as a public man working for their amusement. I must have the actual survey of sussex; at lest as much as has appeared. That it is published is certain~~ly~~ for I have seen it nailed on the walls of a public house. I doubt not but M^{r} Burel could get it for me: or lend it or anything. other wants I wish to have supplied from him: such as an acc^{t}. of the foundation of the great Church on Winchelsey; & its fine monuments: & a copy of the inscription on the handmaid of of Beatrix a natural D^{r} of Portugal in the Ch.[Church] at Arundel. These are services I clame from you for perhaps M^{r} Burel will no more let a Letter of mine enter his house than he w^{d} the writer.

Pray make my best complim^{ts} to M^{r} Storer. No delay shall be made about his little owl.

Moses is hard at work for you.

Adieu
Y^{rs} most truely

Thomas Pennant
Downing June 16th 1787.

Thanks for the print: & y^{r} dutch news.

The collection of Portraits at Longleat the princely longleat ~~are~~ is amazing
