Dear Sir

Downing July 29th. 1787.

On the 3d of this month a parcel of drawings was sent to you & I doubt not their safe arrival. you have now all the remainder. I think I have now done my duty fully & think I may reserve moses to myself the ~~[illegible]~~ rest of the year. I am sorry to reproach any person you have introduced to my acquaintance, but I think my treatment frm Mr Burell has not been of the ~~[illegible]~~ most liberal kind. a Gentleman might at lest expect an answer to his requests.

Please make my Complimts to miss Bulls[1] & think me

Dear Sir
Yr faithful & most
obedt Servt

Tho. Pennant
