Dear Sir

Downing Nov 5th 87.

1

I have been long in thanking you for your favor from Fareham. [2] But be assured I have not been idle in matters that you are interested in. my of London will find you full employ: How it will exercise yr collecting faculties. make much of it for those will be my last words to the public. Look to David for my postuma. ~~[illegible]~~He sailed under yr isle in the finest morning and after experiencing co~~[illegible]~~lors & tempests & lying by a whole night off the french coast landed safe at Havre. in his way to Paris he visited Rouen, Caen, Bayeux, Cherbourg, Mt St Michel, St Maloes, Rennes La Flêche &c. is now departed for the south of France, & towards march will cross the Pyrenees. He progs well for his father: & has got for me among other good things Les delices de la gr. Bretagne.

Moses presents his duty: will soon send to you Catherine y Berain & the views done by Ingleby.[3]

I thank you for taking a copy of my arctic zoology. it will be a fine one & only reserved for the favored.[4]

My best Compliments attend miss Bulls.[5] I wish them well thro their Winter immersion. Write soon. & give me all the news you can scrape.

Adieu
Yrs most truely

T Pennant

My best wishes attend Mr Storer. I wish Mr Burel health: but all out of humour with him.
