Dear Sir

Nantwich March 13th - 1792¹

We are now forty miles on our way to town. a more favorable account of my sister together with a wish to see us determined us to set out. our house is N^o 5 George Street Hanover Square. we shall not reach it till Friday. Please to send anytime on Saturday & as many of the drawings as Moses has finished shall be delivered to y^r servant. I have much to shew you of my own M.S.S. We must hereafter fix a morning for that of Saturday will be taken up in the little businesses always attendant on the New-arrived. your account of the public schools is so just as to confirm me in my resolution of never sending my Tom to either one or other. my friend Lord Kenyon has three sons at Cheame. I know the connections of the master, Gilpin, & know them to be good. perhaps this may make it worth y^r while to pursue the enquiry for the sake of y^r female friend.² M^{rs} P. & I think of making a visit to the place. Excuse more. I write at a late hour & half asleep.

Adieu

Y^{rs} most truly

Tho. Pennant.
