Dear Sir

I hope you will keep 2 of the indian portraits one of the heads of the [?trapping] Rub-rust. I wish much for one with a sallow complexion & white beard: & another with a black skin. They will be of real use to me: & not to stare at.¹ Pray put them to acc^t. I do not beg. all my communications to you are spontaneous & en amitié.² If I succeed in my request, Pray send them speedily to Sir R. M.

Adieu
Yrs most truly

T Pennant

Marginalia

On address side, in Richard Bull's hand:

Cliffords Tower. Woolarton Hall.

Editorial Notes

¹ Pennant's interest in Indian heads presumably related to his work on 'Outlines of the Globe'.

² 'in friendship'.
