Dear Sir.

Thursday May 2. 1793

I return your Volumes of the Arctic Zoology with my best thanks, of which I have taken all possible care, and I am sure you will not find a leaf or a print, or a drawing misplaced. I have look'd them over and over, and the comparative numbers ^of my Birds are so small, as to be not worth ~~noticing~~ mentioning. Quadrupeds I have none of. I should be glad if you can spare me an hour any day after monday, as I want much to shew you ~~my~~ the deficiencies in my copy of the Book in question, which has~~ve~~ never been return'd from Moses, and the Book is quite imperfect without them. I hope to hear you your little Girl finds some amendment in her vision.

I am Dear Sir.
Yours always

Rich^d. Bull

Thomas Pennant Esq^{re}: | N^o. 45 upper Brook Street.
